EXPERIENCE

May-June, 2025

Wockhart Hospital,
Mumbai Central,
Mumbai

Dietician (internship)

During my clinical training at Wockhardt Hospital, Mumbai Central, I provided dietary counseling to inpatients under supervision and assisted in planning and modifying therapeutic diets based on individual medical conditions. I participated in nutritional assessment, monitoring of dietary intake, and multidisciplinary patient care. This experience enhanced my practical understanding of hospital nutrition protocols and clinical diet management.

February, 2024

Agro Food Tech Ltd

Food Analyst (internship)

Gained practical exposure to the production processes of peanut butter, peanut and coconut chocolates, and sweet corn products during industrial training. Conducted quality testing of raw materials, in-process samples, and final packaged products while assisting in packaging evaluation and hygiene maintenance. This experience strengthened my understanding of food safety, preservation techniques, and industrial quality assurance practices.
